

Fall Picture Books

If there's a chill in the air and the trees are spinning a tapestry of reds and golds, it must be autumn! And that means, it's time to cuddle up on the couch and read a few favorite picture books for fall.

Visit blog.allaboutlearningpress.com/picture-books-fall to learn more.

Library Checklist

- Apple Farmer Annie* by Monica Wellington
- Bear Has a Story to Tell* by Philip C. Stead
- Count Down to Fall* by Fran Hawk
- Fletcher and the Falling Leaves* by Julia Rawlinson
- Hardscrabble Harvest* by Dahlov Ipcar
- A House in the Woods* by Inga Moore
- Leaf Jumpers* by Carole Gerber
- Leaf Man* by Lois Ehlert
- Possum's Harvest Moon* by Anne Hunter
- The Pumpkin Runner* by Marsha Diane Arnold
- Tap the Magic Tree* by Christie Matheson
- We're Going on a Leaf Hunt* by Steve Metzger
- Scarecrow* by Cynthia Rylant
- Hello, Harvest Moon* by Ralph Fletcher
- The Very Best Pumpkin* by Mark Kimball Moulton
- Fall Leaves* by Loretta Holland
- Yellow Time* by Lauren Stringer
- Hedgehogs: Autumn Hide & Squeak* by Steve Wilson

Picture Book Spotlight

A House in the Woods by Inga Moore

You might think that two pigs would find it difficult to be friends with a bear and a moose, but if you read A House in the Woods you'll see that anything's possible! Set in an autumn forest, this enchanting picture book is a delightful primer on friendship, generosity, kindness, hard work—and sharing peanut butter sandwiches with friends.

- Goodbye Summer, Hello Autumn* by Kenard Pak
- Mouse's First Fall* by Lauren Thompson
- Hello, Fall!* by Deborah Diesen
- Duck & Goose Find a Pumpkin* by Tad Hills
- South* by Patrick McDonnell

Picture Book Spotlight

The Pumpkin Runner by Marsha Diane Arnold

When Joshua Summerhayes enters a 900-kilometer run, no one expects him to win. After all, with his overalls and big orange boots, the old sheep rancher doesn't look much like a runner. But Joshua has been running for over 50 years, fueled by pumpkins and with his old Yellow Dog by his side. Do you think Joshua can win the race?