Go Dance!

These hilarious dancing turkeys are ready to add some fun to review time. “Go Dance!” is played just like the popular “Go Fish” card game, and we’ve included words from Levels 1-4 of All About Reading so everyone can play!

Prepare the Activity

1. Print the turkey cards that correspond with your student’s reading level. (Print the pages back-to-back. Or, if you prefer, you can glue or tape the pages together.)
  - For Level 1, print pages 3-10.
  - For Level 2, print pages 11-18.
  - For Level 3, print pages 19-26.
  - For Level 4, print pages 27-34.
2. You will need 2 to 4 players for this activity.

How to Play

1. Begin by dealing 5 cards to each player. Place the remaining cards in the draw pile on the table.
2. Players should look at their cards but shouldn’t reveal them to the other players.
3. Player #1 begins by asking any player for a card with one of his words on it. Example: “Amy, do you have a quick card?” If the player has that card, she must give it to Player #1, who will place the matching cards on the table. The player can then continue his turn by asking other players for specific cards and placing any matches on the table.
4. If Player #1 asks for a card the other player doesn’t have, that player will say “Go Dance!” and Player #1 will end their turn by choosing a card from the draw pile. If the card from the draw pile results is a match, Player #1 may place the matches on the table. (Note: The player’s turn is still over if the drawn card is a match. Players only get to continue if matches come from other players.)
5. The game continues with Player #2, and so on.
6. If a player runs out of cards in his hand, he draws 5 new cards from the pile.
7. When the pile runs out of cards, the play continues until every card in every hand is gone.
8. The player with the most pairs wins!
