

Grandparent Picture Books

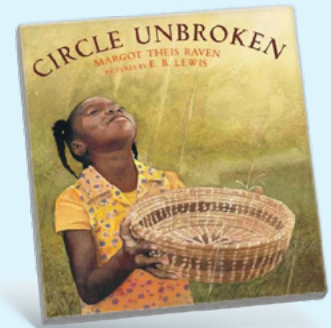

This beautiful collection of picture books honors grandparents from many cultures and periods in history. As you share these books with your children, you'll be reminded how fortunate we are to have the strength and guidance of the older generation.

Visit blog.allaboutlearningpress.com/picture-books-about-grandparents to learn more.

Library Checklist

- A Day's Work* by Eve Bunting
- A Morning with Grandpa* by Sylvia Liu
- Circle Unbroken* by Margot Theis Raven
- Crouching Tiger* by Ying Chang Compestine
- Grandfather's Journey* by Allen Say
- Grandpa Green* by Lane Smith
- How to Babysit a Grandpa* by Jean Reagan
- Little Bear's Visit* by Floyd Cooper
- Max and the Tag-a-long Moon* by Floyd Cooper
- Nana in the City* by Lauren Castillo
- Ruby's Wish* by Shirin Yim Bridges
- The Napping House* by Audrey and Don Wood
- The Raft* by Jim LaMarche
- Thunder Cake* by Patricia Polacco
- Grandfather Ghandi* by Arun Ghandi and Bethany Hegedus
- Watch Out for the Chicken Feet in Your Soup*
by Tomie dePaola

Picture Book Spotlight

Circle Unbroken by Margot Theis Raven

When a young girl asks her grandmother how she learned to weave baskets, the resulting tale leads the girl through her family's memories of sweetgrass baskets, slavery, and freedom. In Circle Unbroken, Margot Theis Raven weaves a story that winds its way through generations and across continents.