Be a Lumberjack

a sample from All About® Reading Level 2

Timber! Get ready for some log-splitting fun with this lumberjack-inspired activity! As your child “chops” each log, he’ll also be learning how to divide words using the Two Consonant Tiles syllable division rule.

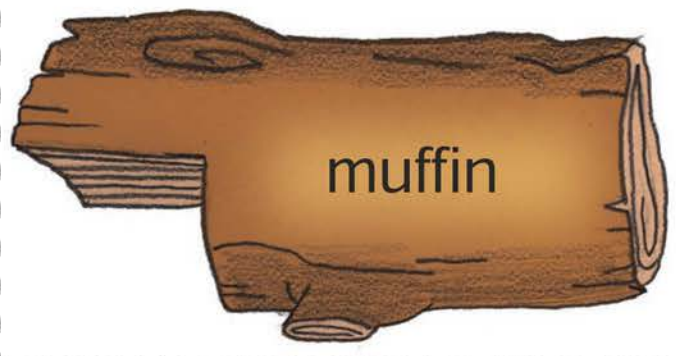

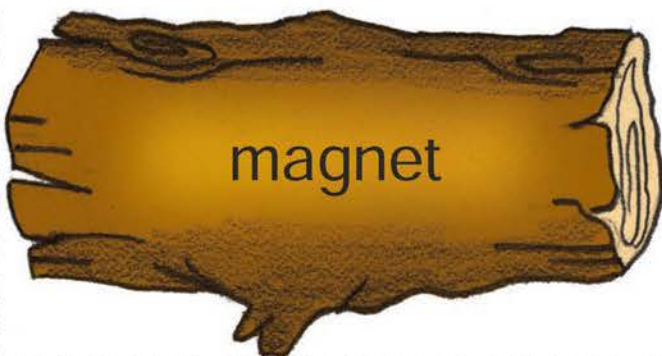

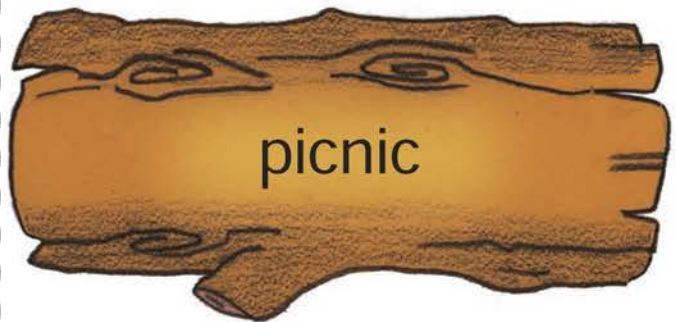

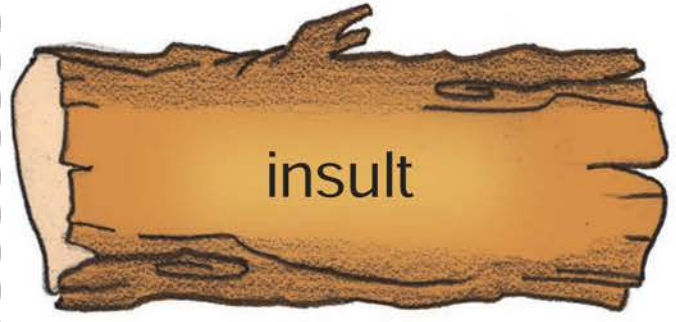

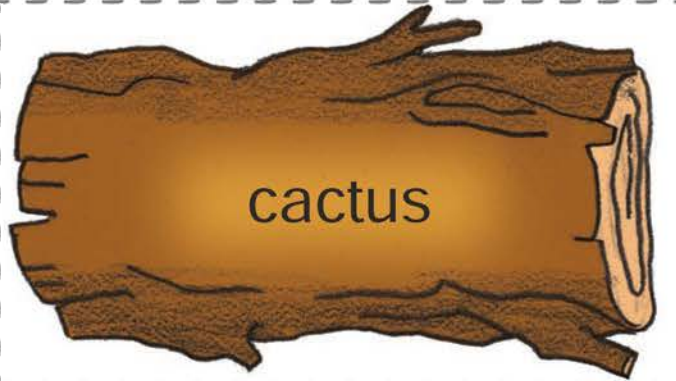

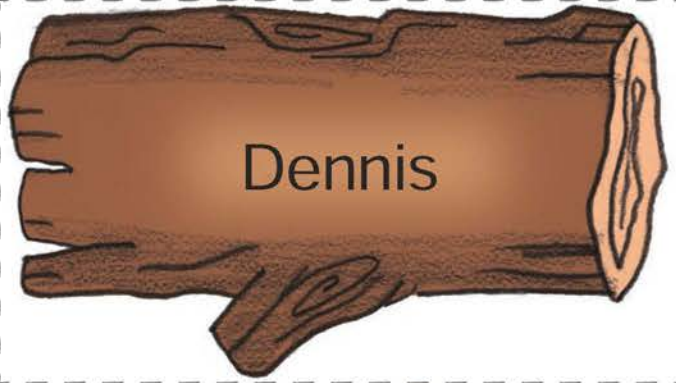

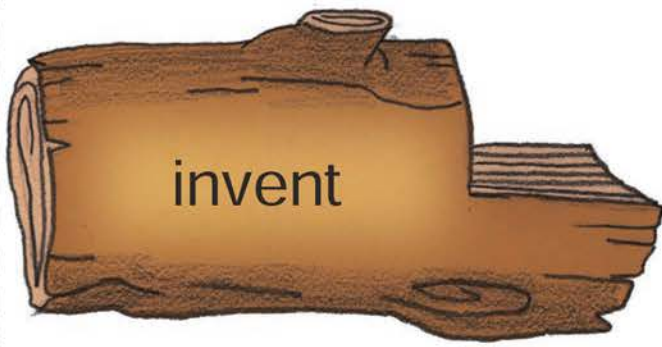

Instructions

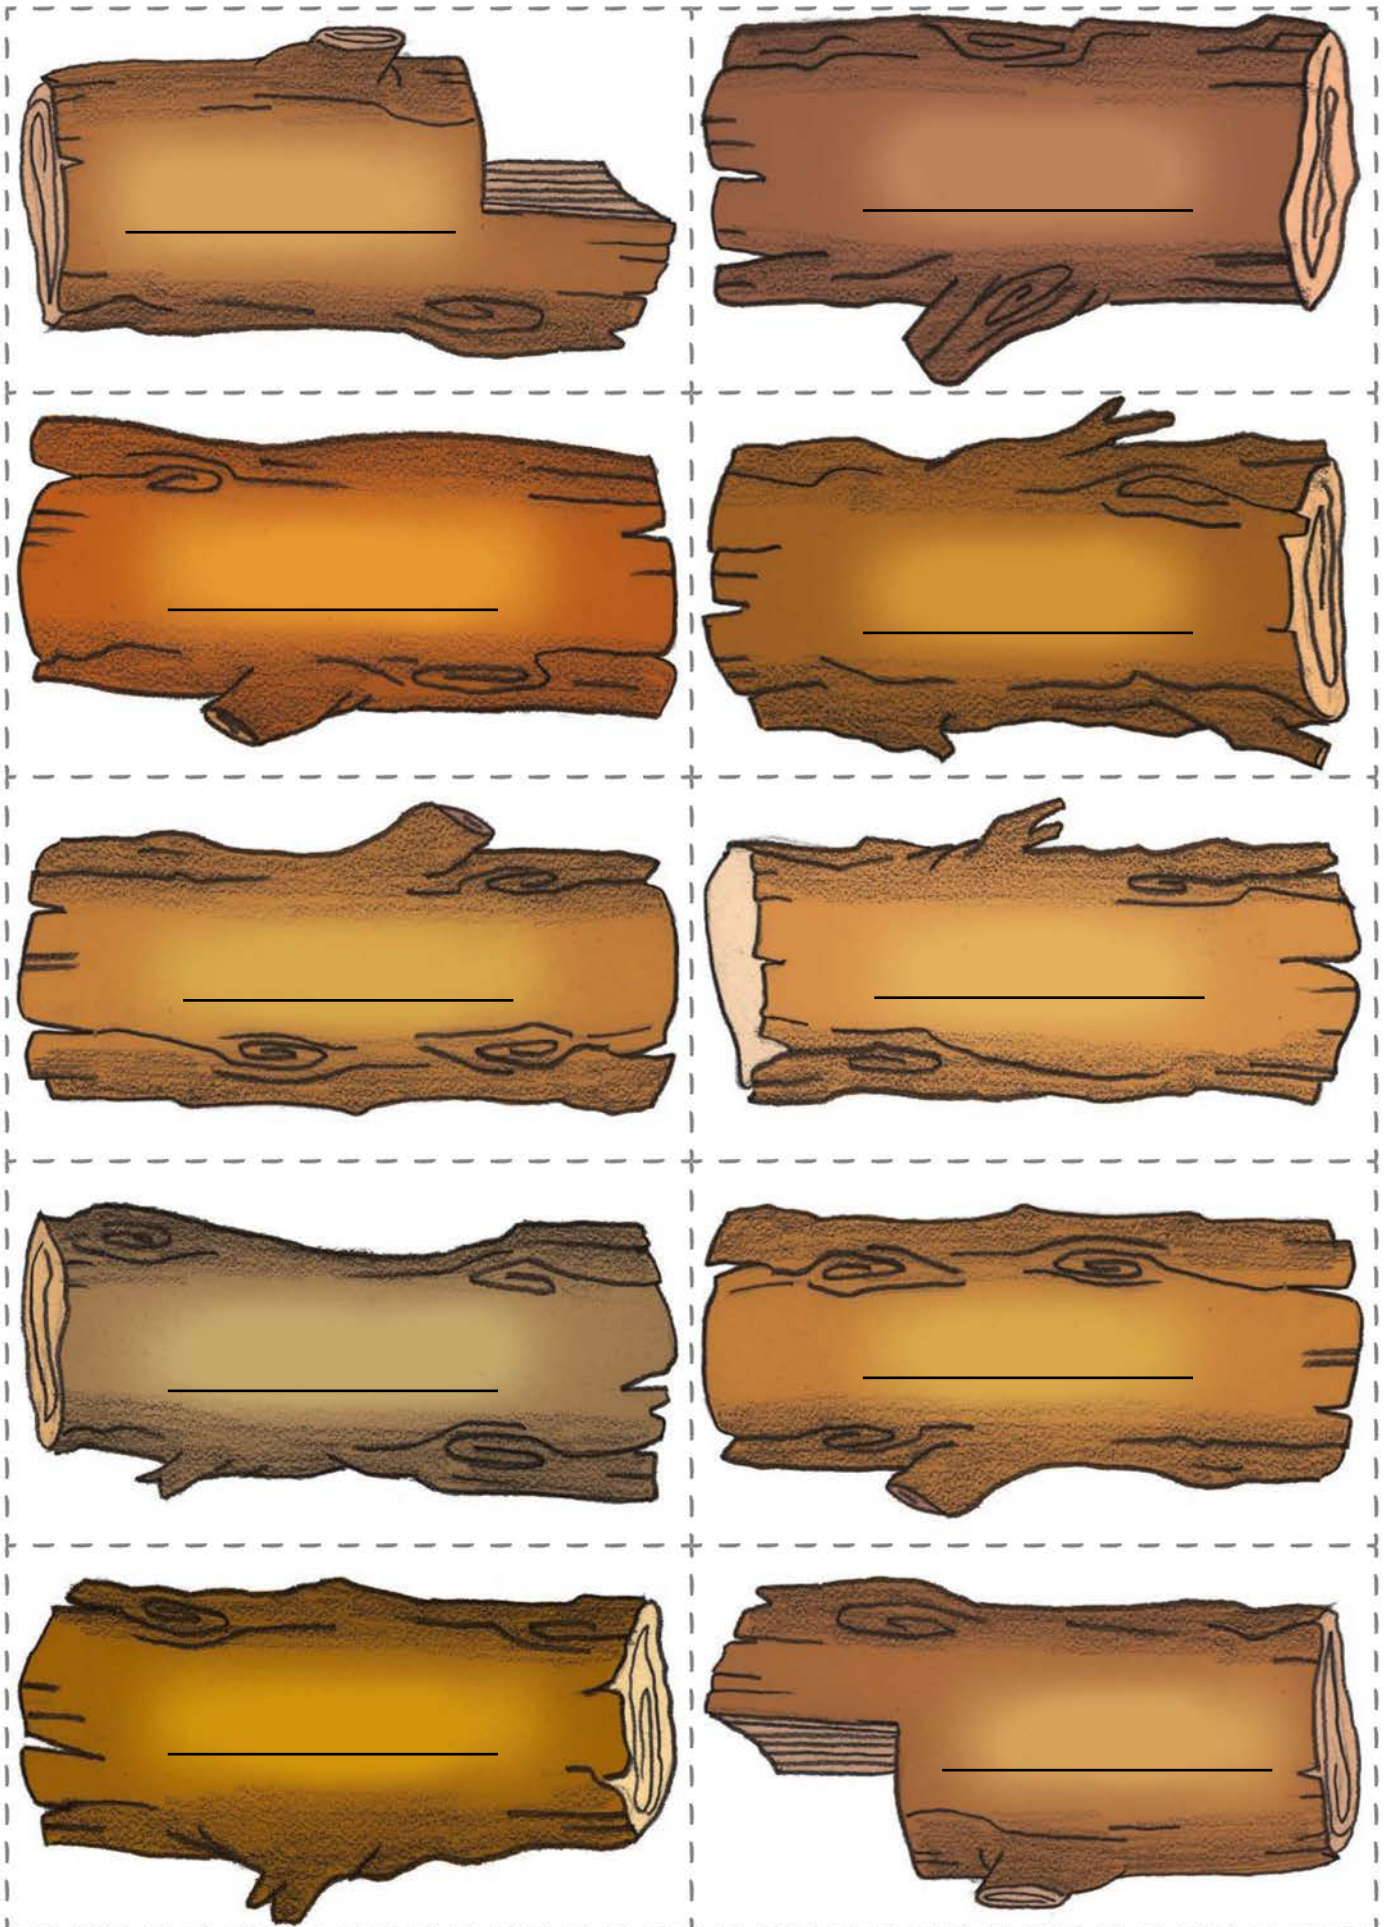

1. Print and cut out the cards on pages 3-5.
2. Have your student pretend to chop each multisyllable word with the ax, dividing the word on the log between the two consonants.
3. The student should read each portion of the word separately, and then read the entire word.
4. Customize page 5 with the words of your choice and repeat the activity.
