Chore Charts

Make chore time fun! These simple charts use a clothespin system to keep track of daily chores and conveniently hang on bedroom doors. No more lost charts! Have your child choose the chore chart with his favorite All About Reading hero or let him design his own chart with our blank template!

Assembly Instructions

1. Using heavy cardstock, print your child's favorite chore chart and decorate the blank template on page 8.
2. Cut out the chore chart along the dotted lines.
3. Add your child's name to the blank space at the top of the chore chart.
4. Laminate your chore chart for extra sturdiness.
5. Write each chore name on both sides of a wooden clothespin. Place the clothespins on the left side of the door hanger.
6. When a child finishes a chore, instruct him to place the clothespin on the "done" side.

Blank Template	8

A cartoon illustration of a brown dog wearing a white space suit with a helmet and a backpack, set against a blue background with white diagonal stripes. The dog is looking forward with a friendly expression.
